

HSF Innovative Grants 2015 - 2016

The Hillsboro Schools Foundation is pleased to announce the recipients of the Innovative Grant Awards for 2015-16 school year.

May 2015

Kindle-ing for College

Century High School. Provides Kindles to help prepare AVID students for high- stakes exams; APs, SAT/ ACT as well as providing access to technology to support college readiness.

Generously Sponsored by First Tech Federal Credit Union

Evergreen Comicon

Evergreen Middle School. Provides iPad Minis, keyboards, and speaker fees for students to produce their own graphic novels to be showcased at Evergreen's Comic Convention.

Generously Sponsored by New Seasons Market

Dig a Little Deeper

Free Orchards Elementary. Provides building materials for an outdoor covered learning shelter their established school instructional garden.

Using Technology to Improve Outcomes

Miller East Career Education. Provides computers, projector and other classroom instructional technology to improve access to career readiness programs.

Oh, Snap!

Quatama Elementary. Provides electronic circuit program kits for engineering investigations and program kits for physical science investigations.

Generously Sponsored by New Seasons Market

Reedville Bricks Labs

Reedville Elementary. Provides supplies to create an after school STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) program to enhance collaborative learning for students.

Dual Language Innovation

South Meadows Middle School. Provides Chromebooks for students enroll to enroll in a virtual classroom where they can use on-line materials to produce blogs, videos and presentations that demonstrate their knowledge. Students can work independently at their own pace or collaboratively on projects and can be shared with the class and teacher easily.

Generously Sponsored by First Tech Federal Credit Union

Now Playing...Tobias STEM in 3D

Tobias Elementary. Provides computers and a 3 D printer for an after school engineering program; in collaboration with Century High School.

Future Tigers, Full Days, Fully Prepared

Tobias Elementary. Provides supplies, planning and instructional hours to give incoming Kindergarten students a head-start on school-readiness.

Generously sponsored by the Richard Siegel Foundation